Advancing the Industry Together

presented by Texcare

The Clean Show stands as the premier event in the commercial laundering, dry cleaning, and textile care sector, captivating thousands of global attendees with its unrivaled showcase of the latest and most innovative industry products.

Participating in The Clean Show has been a game-changer for Foltex USA. It's not just an event; it's a strategic touchpoint that allows us to forge lasting connections with our valued customers and showcase our cutting-edge solutions. It's where we don't just meet clients; we build relationships and create brand impressions that resonate. Thank you, Clean Show, for being the cornerstone of our customer engagement.
